

AEROBODIES

To our valued Aerobodies customers and community,

We understand that this is an anxious time filled with much ambiguity and uncertainty. While we are looking forward to the day when this unprecedented situation of COVID-19 is well behind us, at Aerobodies we are fully aware that organizations are dealing with some very real, very time-sensitive and very critical challenges.

Because a number of organizations have reached out to us this week about our ability to support their COVID-19 response efforts, we wanted to take a moment to also let you know that we are here for you should you need extra bandwidth over the next 30 to 90 days.

Some of the specific areas we can quickly offer support:

If you don't see something here that you need, please reach out to us, so we can be of assistance. We have a dedicated team managing our response and we will continue to provide updates as requested.

In the meantime, Aerobodies is closely monitoring the latest reports from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO) and we are taking a number of precautionary measures for the health and safety of our employees, customers and strategic partners. We will continue to stay in touch as this situation unfolds. Our goal is to do everything we can to support your efforts to keep your workforce healthy, productive and focused during this unprecedented and evolving situation.
